Ben. T. Taylor, constable of Flagstaff precinct, tendered his resignation which was accepted, and Fletcher Fairchild was appointed constable in his place.

Church Notices.

The subject of the discourse Sunday morning, June 10, at the Presbyterian church will be, "Where to Find God," and in the evening there will be a stereopticon service given, at which about 35 views will be shown, giving an account of the last days of the life of Christ. These views are all copies of paintings by such artists as Dore and Monchaczy. The service will be led by Mr. Reed, and will certainly be helpful. All are cordially invited. H. P. Corser, Pastor.

The Navajo and Apache county recruits came in yesterday and are in camp with the Flagstaff boys. The following is the list: Walter G. Scott, second lieutenant; Joe Murray, E. T. Holgate, Geo. W. Buck, Frederick S. Davis, Robt. Lydston, P. H. O'Neill, L. Marine, Chas. Jarvis, A. C. Peterson, S. H. Hancock.

J. B. Weatherford expects his new stone business building now in course of construction to be ready for occupancy about September 1st.

The Postal telegraph office is being moved today into the new post office building where it will occupy a front window.

E. S. Gosney has moved his office to the second floor of the new postoffice building.

A cool bath at Ed. Bayless' barber shop will fix that tired feeling. 24tf

Miss Edith Tolfree returned from California yesterday.
